VI CONGRESS OF RUSSIAN SOCIETY OF
PLANT PHYSIOLOGISTS

THE INSTITUTE OF BIOLOGY of the Komi Science Centre, Ural Division, Russian Academy of Sciences is the biggest academic centre of ecological and biological investigations in the European North-East of Russia. The staff includes 184 scientists, among them 111 Professors and Doctors, and 35 Postgraduate Students. The basic research directions are biodiversity, resistance and productivity of taiga and tundra ecosystems; biological impacts of low doses of ionizing radiation; multidisciplinary studies of biologically active compounds in plants; development of monitoring and bioindication approaches.

THE LABORATORY OF THE ECOLOGICAL PLANT PHYSIOLOGY conducts researches into the physiological and biochemical bases of adaptation and reproduction of wild and cultural plants in cold climate conditions.

THE REPUBLIC OF KOMI - an equal in rights subject of the Russian Federation. The area of Komi is 416,8 square km. The population totals is 1 018 000. The Republic is rich in mineral and biological resources.
